The hit show from famed manga artist Rumiko Takahashi!

Set in the Sengoku Period of Japan (a period of domestic turmoil about 500 years ago), INUYASHA is a time-travel fantasy adventure based on the hit comic book series of the same name.

Kagome discovers that she can travel back and forth between the present and the Sengoku Period. As she is drawn to another time, she is also drawn into a quest with the half-demon Inuyasha, who is searching for a powerful, sacred stone. However, many enemies seek the same stone. To make matters worse, the stone has been broken into many pieces, making their job all the more difficult.

Kagome discovers powers within herself that she never imagined existed, which may have some link to her predecessor, the sorceress Kikyo. To further complicate matters, Inuyasha discovers that he has feelings for Kagome as they search for the stone together.

The sequel of the hit anime series returns!! With the Shikon Jewel nearly complete, the final battle begins!

When an enchanted well draws her into the past, Kagome, an ordinary modern schoolgirl, finds her destiny tied to the doglike half-demon Inuyasha and a mythical gem called the Shikon Jewel, or "Jewel of Four Souls," of which the smallest shard can grant the user unimaginable power.

Throughout their quest to restore the shattered Shikon Jewel, Inuyasha and Kagome have never faced an enemy more deadly or more cunning than the demon mastermind Naraku. With the Shikon Jewel nearly whole and in Naraku's hands, the race to collect the remaining shards intensifies and a battle of epic proportions is brewing on the horizon...

Behold the terrible secrets of the island!

Fifty years ago, demons and humans lived together in peace on Horai island. When demons from the outside world invaded the island, that peace was shattered and the island lost. Fifty years later, the island reappears, giving Inuyasha, Sesshomaru, and Kikyo a chance to explore the island and discover their secrets. What they don't know, however, is that the four war gods are waiting for them.

Only one sword to dominate the Earth!
The battle between brothers is about to begin!

Long ago, two swords were forged from the fangs of Inuyasha's legendary father, Tetsusaiga, and wielded by Inuyasha, and Tenseiga, wielded by his half-brother Sesshomaru. Now a third sword, Sounga, appears, with the power to dominate the three worlds: the heavens, Earth, and the underworld. The complicated wheels of destiny begin to turn, and an epic battle between the brothers ensues.
